

GOULD TAKES HELM HERE FOR GEN. WOOD

Representative Confers With
Col. Procter, in Charge of Chicago Headquarters.

SLAPS OTHER CANDIDATES

Hopes Herbert Hoover May Run on the Democratic Presidential Ticket.

Taking command at the Hotel Imperial yesterday as Eastern manager of the movement to land the Republican nomination for President for Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Representative Norman J. Gould asserted that no other candidate could show proofs of strength in so many widely separated sections of the country.

To back up his assertion Mr. Gould mentioned five State Governors who are members of the Wood campaign committee—Allen of Kansas, Shoup of Colorado, Burnquist of Minnesota, Norbeck of South Dakota and Bartlett of New Hampshire.

Following an important conference of the leaders of the movement with Col. William C. Procter, the scheme of organization was announced. Col. Procter will have general headquarters in Chicago. A. A. Sprague of Illinois will be there in the capacity of national treasurer. Fred Stanley, member of the Republican National Committee from Kansas, will be the Western manager.

Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire will manage the Southern territory from headquarters at the Willard Hotel in Washington.

Associated with Mr. Gould here will be Lieut.-Col. Thomas W. Miller of Wilmington, Del. Col. Horace C. Stebbins will be the Eastern treasurer.

Mr. Gould said that since it had been announced that he would be Eastern manager for Gen. Wood he had been receiving messages from all quarters predicting the success of the movement.

"So far as I am concerned I should like to have him run as a Democrat," declared Mr. Gould discussing the agitation in regard to Herbert Hoover as a possible Presidential candidate. "A man who has voted for President in the United States only once—and that back in 1896—is impossible as a Republican candidate."

"One thing alone is enough to condemn him in the eyes of Republicans. It is his appeal for a Democratic Congress in 1918. Personally, however, I feel like thanking him for it. It resulted in a plurality for me of 24,159 in my Congressional district."

Mr. Gould said that a prominent New Yorker had told him there was fairly good circumstantial evidence that Senator Johnson was considering the possibility of joining with William Randolph Hearst in a third party movement.

"I do not know whether it is true or not," he added, "but there seems to be a bond of sympathy between the Senator and Mr. Hearst."

So far as he could discover, Mr. Gould said, there was demand for the candidacy of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, although he was a "most distinguished head of a great college."

It was stated at the Wood headquarters that determined efforts were being made by the managers of Gov. Frank O. Lowden to overcome the lead of Wood in South Dakota and Michigan.

Early Sunday has written that he is heartily in favor of Gen. Wood's candidacy.

LIVINGSTON SCOFFS AT HASKELL'S BOOM

Suggests Bathing Suit as Emblem for Judge.

Jacob A. Livingston, Republican leader of Kings County, thinks lightly of County Judge Reuben L. Haskell as a gubernatorial candidate.

"Haskell has a perfect right to submit his candidacy for Governor on the wet issue if he sees fit," said Mr. Livingston yesterday. "Now that he has chosen to make the wet issue the paramount one in this campaign I suggest that he select a bathing suit as an emblem."

Judge Haskell said that if he did enter the race he would do so as he did in the County Judge campaign last year and would "make an appeal for contributions from people who believe in the principle of personal liberty."

Mrs. Hobart Cuts Off G. O. P.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 26.—Asserting that she could not contribute to the Republican party as long as it advocates the cause of woman suffrage, Mrs. Garrett A. Hobart of Paterson, widow of a former Vice President, in a statement made to-day upheld the action of the Assembly last week in proposing to refer all constitutional amendments to the people.

Women in Democratic Convention.

ALBANY, Me., Jan. 26.—Women are invited to take part in the deliberations of the Democratic State Convention at Bangor, March 30, in the call for the convention, issued to-day by the State committee. The convention will adopt a declaration of principles, elect twelve delegates and twelve alternates to the national convention at San Francisco and nominate six candidates for electors of President and Vice-President.

Guthrie Militia Minister.

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—Hugh Guthrie, Solicitor-General, has been appointed Minister of Militia to succeed Major-Gen. McEwen, resigned, it was announced here to-day.

DON'T BE WITHOUT SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Keep it handy—it knows no equal in relieving pains and aches

SLOAN'S LINIMENT has been sold for 38 years. Today it is more popular than ever. There can be but one answer—it produces results.

Applied without rubbing, it penetrates to the afflicted part, bringing relief from rheumatic twinges, sciatica, sore, stiff, strained muscles, lame back and other exterior pains and sprains and the result of exposure. It leaves no mussiness, stain, clogged pores.

Get a large bottle for greater economy. Keep it handy for use when needed. Your druggist has it. Three sizes—35c., 70c., $1.40.

Sloan's Liniment
Keep it handy

'GOV. SMITH FIGHTS FEDERAL RAIL BILL

Asks State Legislature to Urge Its Defeat.

Special Dispatch to THE SUN.
ALBANY, Jan. 26.—Gov. Smith urged the Legislature in a special message to-night to communicate with New York State's representatives in Congress in an effort to prevent the enactment of the Cummins-Each bill, returning the railroads to private control.

"Both Public Service Commissions," said the Governor, "believe that if the bill in its present form should become a law it would seriously interfere with State control, through our public service commissions, of public utilities in this State. I do not think that the already difficult task of regulating and controlling public utilities in this State should be made more difficult by such Federal interference as might result from the passage of this bill in its present form."

Gov. Smith included in his message to the Legislature copies of letters from Lewis Nixon, Public Service Commissioner for New York City, and from Chairman Charles B. Hill of the upstate commission. Mr. Hill's letter declares that "by this bill the Interstate Commerce Commission is given authority to annul any rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation or practice made by the authority of a State, which, in its opinion, is an undue burden upon interstate or foreign commerce," and also that "the Interstate Commerce Commission is also authorized to review on appeal any decision of a State commission which, in its judgment, affects interstate commerce."

Commissioner Nixon's letter points out that the provisions of the Cummins-Each bill "will undoubtedly operate to deprive the State commissions of their powers to enforce any rate, service or other regulatory matter."

STERNBERG BROUGHT BACK FROM CANADA

Accused of Part in Policeman's Burglaries.

Benny Sternberg, the last of the men sought by the Brooklyn police in connection with the operations of Policeman Herman Krause and his gang of burglars, reached the city last night from Toronto, where he was captured Thursday.

Detective Frank Dougherty of the Brooklyn Detective Bureau, who brought Sternberg back to face trial on an indictment charging burglary and grand larceny, made extradition proceedings in Canada unnecessary by calling on the Dominion Immigration Service to throw Sternberg out of the country.

As soon as the man crossed the line he was given into Dougherty's custody. He will be tried next week. It was stated by District Attorney Harry E. Lewis.

TO OPEN MACHINERY CENTRE.

J. W. Alexander Will Be Guest at Luncheon.

Joshua W. Alexander, Secretary of Commerce, will be the principal guest at a luncheon to-day that will mark the formal opening of the Allied Machinery Centre, the first exhibition place of its kind at Centre and Walker streets. Prominent bankers and exporters will be among the luncheon guests.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The tables being placed among the tractors, stone crushers, concrete mixers and other road building machines on view now for the benefit of foreign buyers.

The speakers will include Secretary Alexander, Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey, W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Export Association, and George E. Smith, president of the Royal Typewriter Company.

HOOVER BOOM GAINS AS COOLIDGE RETIRES

Republican Leaders Convinced
White House Is Secretly
Backing It.

But accepting the Governor at his word, the rest of the delegation will vote in accordance with its own wishes or previously announced intentions.

Out of the thirty-five there are likely to be at least a dozen supporters of Leonard Wood, a majority of the remainder will go to Coolidge and the rest divide themselves generously over the list of other availables, so that there will be a nucleus in every following around which the Massachusetts delegation may rally when the big break comes.

Speaker Gillett, who has been numbered among the "original Coolidge men," expressed disappointment to-day that Gov. Coolidge had seen fit to withdraw as the active candidate from Massachusetts. He said: "Coolidge is undoubtedly the type of man the country needs at this time. Accordingly, if I should be a delegate to the convention, I should still hope that his very modesty and unwillingness to use his official position for political advancement would aid to his popularity and strength throughout the country, but if Gov. Coolidge does not wish me or any one to run for delegate pledged to him, which conclusion I do not necessarily draw from this statement, of course I must comply and as a candidate be unpledged."

82nd Hog Island Launching.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Seventy-five prominent Pan-American visitors witnessed the launching of the 7,825 ton cargo carrier, Hog Island's eighty-second vessel, to-day.

They believe that all the time the President's political aids are taking daily measures of its strength in accordance with a prearranged plan, and that at the proper time, if the Hoover movement continues to grow, the President will place Mr. Hoover down the throats of the Southern Democrats on the excuse that no other man can win.

Favorable reactions from the persistent sounding of the Hoover to-morrows in the more distant States of the West are already discerned among the chieftains of the Democratic party in Washington. Although Chairman Cummings is avoiding even the discussion of the Hoover movement, other leaders are not so reticent. It is admitted now that the movement in the West at least, is taking tangible form and that included in it are some of the more thoughtful of the party's leaders.

Gov. Coolidge's withdrawal means that Massachusetts will doubtless send an uncommitted delegation to the Republican convention at Chicago. This was the interpretation placed on the action of the Governor by Massachusetts Republicans in the capital.

The big four of Massachusetts will be Senator Lodge, Speaker Gillett, former Senator W. Murray Crane and former State Chairman Edward A. Thurston. The big four will vote for Coolidge, accepting his own statement that he will be receptive, not active. Senator Lodge some months ago stated his own willingness to place Gov. Coolidge in nomination, saying that he would appreciate the honor highly. He will doubtless perform that office at Chicago.

But accepting the Governor at his word, the rest of the delegation will vote in accordance with its own wishes or previously announced intentions.

Out of the thirty-five there are likely to be at least a dozen supporters of Leonard Wood, a majority of the remainder will go to Coolidge and the rest divide themselves generously over the list of other availables, so that there will be a nucleus in every following around which the Massachusetts delegation may rally when the big break comes.

Speaker Gillett, who has been numbered among the "original Coolidge men," expressed disappointment to-day that Gov. Coolidge had seen fit to withdraw as the active candidate from Massachusetts. He said: "Coolidge is undoubtedly the type of man the country needs at this time. Accordingly, if I should be a delegate to the convention, I should still hope that his very modesty and unwillingness to use his official position for political advancement would aid to his popularity and strength throughout the country, but if Gov. Coolidge does not wish me or any one to run for delegate pledged to him, which conclusion I do not necessarily draw from this statement, of course I must comply and as a candidate be unpledged."

82nd Hog Island Launching.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Seventy-five prominent Pan-American visitors witnessed the launching of the 7,825 ton cargo carrier, Hog Island's eighty-second vessel, to-day.

They believe that all the time the President's political aids are taking daily measures of its strength in accordance with a prearranged plan, and that at the proper time, if the Hoover movement continues to grow, the President will place Mr. Hoover down the throats of the Southern Democrats on the excuse that no other man can win.

Favorable reactions from the persistent sounding of the Hoover to-morrows in the more distant States of the West are already discerned among the chieftains of the Democratic party in Washington. Although Chairman Cummings is avoiding even the discussion of the Hoover movement, other leaders are not so reticent. It is admitted now that the movement in the West at least, is taking tangible form and that included in it are some of the more thoughtful of the party's leaders.

Gov. Coolidge's withdrawal means that Massachusetts will doubtless send an uncommitted delegation to the Republican convention at Chicago. This was the interpretation placed on the action of the Governor by Massachusetts Republicans in the capital.

The big four of Massachusetts will be Senator Lodge, Speaker Gillett, former Senator W. Murray Crane and former State Chairman Edward A. Thurston. The big four will vote for Coolidge, accepting his own statement that he will be receptive, not active. Senator Lodge some months ago stated his own willingness to place Gov. Coolidge in nomination, saying that he would appreciate the honor highly. He will doubtless perform that office at Chicago.

But accepting the Governor at his word, the rest of the delegation will vote in accordance with its own wishes or previously announced intentions.

Out of the thirty-five there are likely to be at least a dozen supporters of Leonard Wood, a majority of the remainder will go to Coolidge and the rest divide themselves generously over the list of other availables, so that there will be a nucleus in every following around which the Massachusetts delegation may rally when the big break comes.

Speaker Gillett, who has been numbered among the "original Coolidge men," expressed disappointment to-day that Gov. Coolidge had seen fit to withdraw as the active candidate from Massachusetts. He said: "Coolidge is undoubtedly the type of man the country needs at this time. Accordingly, if I should be a delegate to the convention, I should still hope that his very modesty and unwillingness to use his official position for political advancement would aid to his popularity and strength throughout the country, but if Gov. Coolidge does not wish me or any one to run for delegate pledged to him, which conclusion I do not necessarily draw from this statement, of course I must comply and as a candidate be unpledged."

82nd Hog Island Launching.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Seventy-five prominent Pan-American visitors witnessed the launching of the 7,825 ton cargo carrier, Hog Island's eighty-second vessel, to-day.

They believe that all the time the President's political aids are taking daily measures of its strength in accordance with a prearranged plan, and that at the proper time, if the Hoover movement continues to grow, the President will place Mr. Hoover down the throats of the Southern Democrats on the excuse that no other man can win.

Favorable reactions from the persistent sounding of the Hoover to-morrows in the more distant States of the West are already discerned among the chieftains of the Democratic party in Washington. Although Chairman Cummings is avoiding even the discussion of the Hoover movement, other leaders are not so reticent. It is admitted now that the movement in the West at least, is taking tangible form and that included in it are some of the more thoughtful of the party's leaders.

Gov. Coolidge's withdrawal means that Massachusetts will doubtless send an uncommitted delegation to the Republican convention at Chicago. This was the interpretation placed on the action of the Governor by Massachusetts Republicans in the capital.

The big four of Massachusetts will be Senator Lodge, Speaker Gillett, former Senator W. Murray Crane and former State Chairman Edward A. Thurston. The big four will vote for Coolidge, accepting his own statement that he will be receptive, not active. Senator Lodge some months ago stated his own willingness to place Gov. Coolidge in nomination, saying that he would appreciate the honor highly. He will doubtless perform that office at Chicago.

But accepting the Governor at his word, the rest of the delegation will vote in accordance with its own wishes or previously announced intentions.

Out of the thirty-five there are likely to be at least a dozen supporters of Leonard Wood, a majority of the remainder will go to Coolidge and the rest divide themselves generously over the list of other availables, so that there will be a nucleus in every following around which the Massachusetts delegation may rally when the big break comes.

Speaker Gillett, who has been numbered among the "original Coolidge men," expressed disappointment to-day that Gov. Coolidge had seen fit to withdraw as the active candidate from Massachusetts. He said: "Coolidge is undoubtedly the type of man the country needs at this time. Accordingly, if I should be a delegate to the convention, I should still hope that his very modesty and unwillingness to use his official position for political advancement would aid to his popularity and strength throughout the country, but if Gov. Coolidge does not wish me or any one to run for delegate pledged to him, which conclusion I do not necessarily draw from this statement, of course I must comply and as a candidate be unpledged."

82nd Hog Island Launching.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Seventy-five prominent Pan-American visitors witnessed the launching of the 7,825 ton cargo carrier, Hog Island's eighty-second vessel, to-day.

They believe that all the time the President's political aids are taking daily measures of its strength in accordance with a prearranged plan, and that at the proper time, if the Hoover movement continues to grow, the President will place Mr. Hoover down the throats of the Southern Democrats on the excuse that no other man can win.

Favorable reactions from the persistent sounding of the Hoover to-morrows in the more distant States of the West are already discerned among the chieftains of the Democratic party in Washington. Although Chairman Cummings is avoiding even the discussion of the Hoover movement, other leaders are not so reticent. It is admitted now that the movement in the West at least, is taking tangible form and that included in it are some of the more thoughtful of the party's leaders.

Gov. Coolidge's withdrawal means that Massachusetts will doubtless send an uncommitted delegation to the Republican convention at Chicago. This was the interpretation placed on the action of the Governor by Massachusetts Republicans in the capital.

The big four of Massachusetts will be Senator Lodge, Speaker Gillett, former Senator W. Murray Crane and former State Chairman Edward A. Thurston. The big four will vote for Coolidge, accepting his own statement that he will be receptive, not active. Senator Lodge some months ago stated his own willingness to place Gov. Coolidge in nomination, saying that he would appreciate the honor highly. He will doubtless perform that office at Chicago.

But accepting the Governor at his word, the rest of the delegation will vote in accordance with its own wishes or previously announced intentions.

Out of the thirty-five there are likely to be at least a dozen supporters of Leonard Wood, a majority of the remainder will go to Coolidge and the rest divide themselves generously over the list of other availables, so that there will be a nucleus in every following around which the Massachusetts delegation may rally when the big break comes.

Speaker Gillett, who has been numbered among the "original Coolidge men," expressed disappointment to-day that Gov. Coolidge had seen fit to withdraw as the active candidate from Massachusetts. He said: "Coolidge is undoubtedly the type of man the country needs at this time. Accordingly, if I should be a delegate to the convention, I should still hope that his very modesty and unwillingness to use his official position for political advancement would aid to his popularity and strength throughout the country, but if Gov. Coolidge does not wish me or any one to run for delegate pledged to him, which conclusion I do not necessarily draw from this statement, of course I must comply and as a candidate be unpledged."

82nd Hog Island Launching.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Seventy-five prominent Pan-American visitors witnessed the launching of the 7,825 ton cargo carrier, Hog Island's eighty-second vessel, to-day.

They believe that all the time the President's political aids are taking daily measures of its strength in accordance with a prearranged plan, and that at the proper time, if the Hoover movement continues to grow, the President will place Mr. Hoover down the throats of the Southern Democrats on the excuse that no other man can win.

Favorable reactions from the persistent sounding of the Hoover to-morrows in the more distant States of the West are already discerned among the chieftains of the Democratic party in Washington. Although Chairman Cummings is avoiding even the discussion of the Hoover movement, other leaders are not so reticent. It is admitted now that the movement in the West at least, is taking tangible form and that included in it are some of the more thoughtful of the party's leaders.

Gov. Coolidge's withdrawal means that Massachusetts will doubtless send an uncommitted delegation to the Republican convention at Chicago. This was the interpretation placed on the action of the Governor by Massachusetts Republicans in the capital.

The big four of Massachusetts will be Senator Lodge, Speaker Gillett, former Senator W. Murray Crane and for-

STRAW VOTES CHEER LOWDEN'S BACKERS

Show Him Leading Wood, Is Claim.

Special Dispatch to THE SUN.
CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Lowden supporters to-day were jubilant over the results of straw votes from South Dakota, supposedly a Wood stronghold, and from Iowa, polls in both States showing the Illinois Governor to be well ahead of all rivals for public support. It is claimed.

Further evidence that Major-Gen. Wood's boom in the West was striking a rough and rocky road was evidenced when ex-Gov. Fenimore Chatterton of Wyoming endorsed Gov. Lowden.

W. H. King, chairman of the Republican State Committee and manager of the Wood campaign, breezed into the Wood headquarters to-day and cheered the enthusiasts there with claims that South Dakota would give Gen. Wood a plurality of 25,000. At the same time straw votes were being given out at the Lowden headquarters across the hall showing the Governor of Illinois in the lead and the Lowden managers are claiming South Dakota by a big majority.

"I cannot see any one but Wood in South Dakota," said Manager King. "The situation is all that we could ask for. The only delegates running are Wood men, picked by the State convention. The fight is between Wood and Lowden. If the Republicans give Lowden a plurality, then the South Dakota delegation is legally bound to vote for Wood for three ballots at least. Our Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and practically the entire State organization are working for Wood."

Senator Poinsett has challenged Gen. Wood for a debate, and under the State law the General must debate personally or send a representative. Our candidate must debate sixteen times because of challenges from the independent candidates."

RECORD INCORPORATION DAY.

Total of 108 New Concerns Registered in Albany.

ALBANY, Jan. 26.—A total of 108 companies were incorporated with the Secretary of State to-day, representing a capitalization of $4,878,300. This is the largest number incorporated in a single day in the history of the office, the best previous record being ninety-two.

The Peacock Print Company of New York, incorporating at $1,500,000, was the largest in the amount of its capital stock. The Walcott Clothing Company of New York was one of the thirteen concerns filing certificates of no par value in connection with its incorporation. Its preferred stock was stated as being $1,250,000 with 120,000 shares without par value. The company paid a tax of $6,350 to the State Treasurer.

Death Ends 18 Day Sleep.

Death came to Louis Rosner, a candy manufacturer of 3663 Third avenue, The Bronx, yesterday after he had been asleep for eighteen days. He suffered from lethargic encephalitis (sleeping sickness).

TIFFANY & Co.

FIFTH AVENUE & 37th STREET

PEARLS DIAMONDS JEWELRY
SILVERWARE STATIONERY

There's Music in the Air

In every corner, in every home, auditorium and theatre in these broad United States there is music—music everywhere.

For next week is music week, and with concerts in home and hall, Ru-stella is doing its part to put joy and happiness in hundreds of homes.

The Master-Made Horn

A Ru-stella—the phonograph with the master made horn—in your home and you have not only the concert at your fire-side, but the artist too.

For the horn of Ru-stella has been made so resonant that when one listens from behind a screen the exquisite tone beguiles one to think that he has listened to the artist or to a real instrument played by a human hand.

Plays All Records

Ru-stella plays all records, Victor, Emerson, Columbia, Edison and Pathe with the aid of its improved universal tone arm.

Its Super Motor

is super-sturdy in construction, super-silent in operation and super-steady in regulation. This is the part of a phonograph that is most likely to get out of order, but

Our Two Year Guarantee